SECOND ANNUAL COLLECTOR'S SCHOOL AT THE DAVID C. DRISKELL CENTER

Due to the overwhelming success of the First Annual Collector's School at the David C. Driskell Center in 2016, the Driskell Center is pleased to announce that it will present its Second Annual Collector's School in April 2017. The purpose of this series is to provide training and education to new and established collectors about the lifetime process of building an art collection. The School will focus on collecting African American art, but the advice and skills presented may be used by anyone interested in collecting art and supporting the arts.

The Collector's School will be held from Friday, April 21 to Sunday, April 23, 2017 and will focus on the following themes:

- An Introduction to the History of African American Art
- The World of Collecting
- Understanding the Business of Art
- Managing Your Collection
- Deaccessioning and Estate Planning

The cost to participate in the Collector's School is $300. Registration is accepted for the full weekend only. Upon completion of the school, students will be given a bibliography of suggested reading materials and a Certificate of Completion.
